Vernon Bradley is a Licensed Marriage Family Therapist with almost 47 years of experience in the mental health field, 34 of those years in private practice. As he always likes to say in a humorous way, "Yes, I am still alive and loving what I do!"

He is also an author; his best known book is From the Frying Pan to The Jacuzzi, Gourmet Recipes For A Gourmet Relationship. His book has been utilized as a go-to guide for professionals in mental health and patients who desire change and transformation. Vernon is an active blogger on topics related to mental health and relationships. In addition, he is in demand as a speaker/expert and authority on the subject matter.

Vernon has been providing training for parents, foster parents, residential treatment staff, and co-parenting for divorced couples for 30 years. Always insightful, Vernon encourages high group interaction and attendees are inspired with innovative solutions. He has a very integrative approach to both therapy and training utilizing humor. Approachable, refreshing, and encouraging are only some of the terms used to describe his presence after one of his live events. A professional organization or group will be forever changed by the Vernon Bradley experience.
